Lea Michele KNIFESTYLES

IN the November issue of GQ, Glee star Lea Michele admits she was told to get a nose job to better her chances in Hollywood—but claims she refused. “My mom always told me growing up, ‘Barbra Streisand didn’t get a nose job. You’re not getting a nose job.’ And I didn’t.” Or did she? NYC plastic surgeon Dr. Michael A. Fiorillo tells Star, “It appears that she may have had some minor reshaping of her tip.” But L.A.-based Dr. Robert Kotler believes Lea. “I don’t think it’s been done. The tip is still rather wide.” ★

Teen Mom’s Catelynn & Tyler
COLLEGE FUND

Catelynn Lowell and Tyler Baltierra gave their daughter, Carly, up for adoption so she could have a better life and they could go to college. But with Tyler’s dad in jail and Catelynn’s mom unemployed, affording tuition is almost impossible for the Teen Mom stars. That’s why the website Jezebel set up a college fund for the twosome to make sure their dream becomes a reality. Until Nov. 3, fans can make donations to a PayPal account set up under the name TeenMomCollegeFund@gmail.com. Jezebel’s Tracie Egan tells Star that after just one day, $7,300 was raised! ★

Meet Snooki’s
NEW BOYFRIEND

She’s been Snookin’ for love, and it seems she’s found it! The Jersey Shore star showed off her new Guido boytoy, 23-year-old college student Jionni LaValle, at West Orange, N.J. nightclub 4Sixty6 on Oct. 16. And he’s the furthest thing from her previous “juicehead gorilla” boyfriends. An insider at the club says Jionni’s not a big drinker and has even inspired Snooki to booze less. “She nursed one drink all night in order to impress him,” says the insider. “She kept saying it was the best and healthiest relationship she has ever been in.” But has Snooki given up more than just alcohol? She told the Mojo in the Morning radio show on Oct. 21 that she hasn’t had sex in three months! ★
